At Cumberland Mountain Community Services Board, the Day Support Services program for people with developmental disabilities includes person centered training and specialized supervision for the acquisition, retention, or improvement in self help, socialization and adaptive skills. The service is designed for maximum peer interactions and frequent opportunity for community and social integration. Services may be either center-based or non-centered based. Each individual will be included in and play a key role in service planning and will have the freedom to make changes to the plan at their discretion. An individual may also receive physical, occupational or speech and language therapies.
