Event Description

VCU Parkinson's & Movement Disorders Center wants you to know about Parkinson TV, a new educational TV series piloted by the University of Rochester, in collaboration with Dr. Bas Bloem and Radboud University in the Netherlands. The series presents neurologists, patients and topic experts in a discussion of various aspects of living with Parkinson's, as well as ways to maximize quality of life. Episodes will air each Tuesday at 8PM EST. The first season will consist of 6 episodes on the topics of exercise, medication, nutrition, advanced therapies, speech therapy and occupational therapy. The first episode aired Tuesday, September 5th and can be accessed at the following link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Usw2zbHmyjE>. If you would like to receive the episode links each week via email, please contact Alistair Glidden at alistair.glidden@chet.rochester.edu and he will add you to the email distribution list.
