Mobility Services focuses on improving existing transportation options and coordinating a community-wide transportation service network comprised of transportation providers to meet our community needs. Persons in need may include older adults, people with disabilities, and low-income individuals without personal vehicles.

Mobility Services serves Chesterfield County residents who must register in order to access transportation. Registration is free, quick, and easy - you can register online or call to request a registration form by mail. Please check out the Mobility Services Rider's Guide on the website for complete information.

Mobility Services is dedicated to serving your needs. If there is a specific problem that needs our attention, please tell us by filing a complaint by phone, email, or traditional mail. Mobility Services staff will review and investigate each complaint filed.
