

The Arc Virtual Program Library for People with Disabilities

The ARC's Virtual Program Library for People with Disabilities

On this site, people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) and their caregivers can find and share on-demand activities that they can use whenever it is convenient for them in the comfort of their own homes. Service providers can also find and share resources that they can use to facilitate or deliver live, remote programming for people with IDD.

The Arc's Virtual Program Library, a free hub full of on-demand activities that can be done from home by people with disabilities, their families, and service providers.

Topics include arts, community and life skills, education, employment, health and wellness, virtual clubs, and more.

Visit the hub to check out the resources we have and share it with your networks so it can continue to grow into a robust resource for people with disabilities and their supporters!

► Browse Resources

► Did we miss a great online activity that you love to do? Tell us about it!

Article Source

The Arc of the United States

Source URL

<https://thearc.org>

Last Reviewed

Monday, December 18, 2023